To Whom It May Concern:

Clifford Kettemborough has been a tutor with Professional Tutors of America, Inc. from August 2007 to present. He expresses enthusiasm and dedication to our clients and a genuine concern for their education and well-being.

Clifford Kettemborough provides private tutoring in the clients' home. Though I am not present during his tutoring sessions to document his teaching style and techniques, I do make verbal and written contacts with clients to evaluate the performance of our tutors. Clifford's clients are pleased with his service and the rapport he has with their student. He is extremely reliable and always follows company procedures.

He is an asset to our company. I highly recommend Clifford for any position he chooses to pursue.

Sincerely,

Rick Henry
